

DEUTSCHE BIBLIOTHEK DER WISSENSCHAFTEN
German Library of Sciences

Erwin Tegtmeier
(Mannheim, Germany)

Emotional Acts and Moral Facts

Abstract

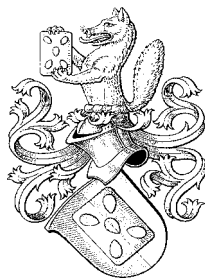

FRANKFURTER TAGE FÜR PHILOSOPHIE

FRANKFURT DAYS ON PHILOSOPHY

Grundlagen der Ethik
Foundations of Ethics

Normativität und Objektivität
Normativity and Objectivity

10. / 11. August 2002

DR. HÄNSEL-HOHENHAUSEN AG

FRANKFURT A.M. * MÜNCHEN * MIAMI * NEW YORK

An affinity between emotional acts and moral facts suggests itself. Our most natural access to moral facts seems to go by emotional acts. However, the assumption of emotional acts as well as of moral facts cannot be taken for granted. It will be asked whether there are those kinds of acts and those kinds of facts and, if the answer is positive, what their categorial structures are and how they are connected.